

Italy Wine and Food Tours

Sicily 9 – 19 October 2018

Are you a wine and food aficionado? Would you like Master of Wine Peter Scudamore-Smith to guide you across Sicily, the pearl of the Mediterranean, in search of your sensory indulgence?

Get ready to savour amazing wines and mouth-watering gastronomic delights on Uncorked and Cultivated's Sicily Wine and Food Tour. Peter Scudamore-Smith, Master of Wine, has explored the tastes of Sicily and is able to share his experiences with you on a sensational wine and food journey.

Peter will take you through the wine regions of the east and west coasts (six provinces) for a unique and exclusive experience for lovers of wine and food. You'll discover Taormina, Siracusa and Trapani, the high altitude Etnean slopes, visit Michelin-starred restaurants, sample the traditional reds of the south, the reincarnated whites around Trapani, modernised varieties in the south-west and have the chance to flirt with some natural and amphora wines.

What sets Uncorked and Cultivated's Sicily Wine and Food Tour apart is the introduction-only exclusive visits to wineries not generally open to the public. Better still, Peter's made sure that all of the wines tasted at the wineries and in the restaurants are available for you to purchase in Australia.

Each day you can look forward to a themed lunch or dinner to complement your winery visits. You can expect the very best history-influenced flavours of this grand island with region-specific dishes, traditional cooking styles, ingredients in season and wine varietals at each dining experience. Peter Scudamore-Smith will guide the restaurants managers in wine selection on each occasion.

We stay in luxurious old-world hotels with sweeping views of the sea, all centrally located in the cities we visit. Uncorked and Cultivated offers you quality experiences within short walking distance of your hotels. We want you to have time to explore and discover the history, architecture and traditions of Sicily including Greek temples, baroque churches and medieval fortresses when winery and restaurant visits are not programmed.

Our guests receive the best personalised attention, tasting expertise and menu explanations as numbers are limited to 12 people.

Day 1 – Tuesday 9 October

Welcome to Sicily! Uncorked and Cultivated will collect you from Catania Airport at 2pm. We then travel north to the medieval town of Taormina, settled on a hill overlooking sweeping turquoise bays below and views of Mount Etna, Europe's highest active volcano. We deliver you to your charming hotel in the centre of the town, graced with breathtaking views of the Mediterranean Sea.

Experience Taormina's perfect combination of atmosphere, history and culture with your first passeggiata. This is an elegant and lively old-world tradition of dressing smartly and taking a walk through the main street at sundown. Afterwards we will meet in the evening to dine at a local trattoria to feast on sumptuous local seafood including the house specialty stuffed fresh sardines.

Day 2 – Wednesday 10 October

Today we depart at 9am for the lava rock vineyards under Mount Etna's eastern side to Azienda Benanti at Viagrande. This is the home of Sicily's greatest living white wine. You'll enjoy a palmento visit, wine tasting and light brunch. In the afternoon, we head up to Mount Etna National Park to the viewing and ski lift. You can choose to ascend to 2000 metres for a closer view or experience its spectacular craters and walks. We return to Taormina at 5pm. Your evening is free.

Day 3 – Thursday 11 October

Your morning is free to explore Taormina including the renowned Greek theatre from 300 BC, located high above a cliff overlooking the sea and Mount Etna. Be spellbound by the dramatic views while you sip a cappuccino. Meander down narrow medieval streets for pure discovery or stumble across the delights of the Greek sector in Giardini-Naxos. Why not take a chairlift to the sea level?

We will then indulge in lunch at a local seafood restaurant by the water. You'll experience new and innovative Etnean cuisine from a young but distinguished chef. Why not try the black tagliolini pasta with sea bass ragout, sweet chard roasted tomatoes and basil cream sauce? Your evening is free.

Day 4 – Friday 12 October

Today we depart Taormina for the south-east and Chiaramonte Hills to visit the ancient Roman area Plaga Mesopotamica Sicula, home of the Gulfi family. As an organic maker of excellent single vineyard nero d'avolas grown in chalk surroundings we taste and discover these on arrival after checking in at Gulfi Resort. After a light lunch we explore some local food habits which have existed for centuries. Our feature dinner is created by the Gulfi kitchen accompanied by prime single vineyard nero d'avolas, a feature of this region.

Day 5 – Saturday 13 October

We depart Gulfi 9am for a wine tasting at Azienda Agricola COS near Vittoria, a picturesque wine-producing community between the Iblei Mountains and the Mediterranean Sea. Produced here is Sicily's sole DOCG, Cerasuolo di Vittoria, the highest level in Italian wine designation, grown under biodynamic principles and using ancient winemaking techniques. Here you will witness the winemaking reversion to fermenting and ageing wine in terracotta vessels.

We will then venture to the old Baroque town of Ragusa Ibla for lunch at an exclusive local restaurant known for its chef's penchant for cooking with medieval Roman ingredients.

We travel to our Siracusa accommodation via Modica, visiting the famous Antica Dolceria Bonajuto to taste a variety of chocolates made to a traditional recipe by the sixth generation of a famous dynasty of chocolate makers. We arrive at our hotel late afternoon, a charming boutique building owned by a local family who share their private antique collection. Your evening is yours to wander the historical island of Ortigia, the heart and soul of Siracusa.

Day 6 – Sunday 14 October

Today is yours to explore Siracusa and its surrounds including the ruins of Tempio di Apollo and the catacombs at Basilica di San Giovanni. Take a sea walk around the island of Ortigia. Stroll down Corso Matteotti for the shops and boutiques and take an underground tunnel from the Piazza del Duomo to the harbour. We will meet to dine at a traditional local restaurant which features eastern Sicilian seafood, complemented by a selection of Ragusan and Noto wines.

Day 7 – Monday 15 October

We depart at 9am for inland Sicily to visit the Tasca D'Almerita winery at Tenuta Regaleali in Palermo province (Vallelunga). A tasting from Tasca's diverse wine range is accompanied by favoured Palermitan appetisers: pannelle (chickpea fritters) and crocchette. Following is an estate lunch featuring true locovore style-Sicilian delights made on the premises. Tasca shines as a providore with a spectacular array of produce—the lamb, cheese, caponata, vegetables, ricotta, tomato sauce and extra virgin olive oil are all sourced and made on the estate. After lunch we venture forth to Trapani, an old town on the west coast. We arrive at our hotel in Trapani at 6pm. Your evening is free.

Day 8 – Tuesday 16 October

Today we leave Trapani at 9am for a wine tasting and lunch at the Planeta Estate's Ulmo winery and vineyard at Lago Arancio. The Planeta family is one of the powerhouses of Sicily's wine renaissance, which spearheaded a global passion for the rich indigenous nero d'avola grape. For lunch you'll indulge in tastings and pairings with the most traditional homemade Planeta dishes such as baccala followed by fruit salad cannoli Siciliani, all prepared by Sciacca- born Chef Anhele Pumilia. On our return journey, we will stop at the Segesta archaeological site which has one of the best preserved Greek temples in the world. We return to our hotel at 6pm. Your evening is free.

Day 9 – Wednesday 17 October

Enjoy your free day exploring Trapani and surrounds. This city has a wealth of palaces, churches and medieval fortifications for you to explore. Take the cable car up to the spectacular walled hilltop town of Erice, Sicily's oldest with narrow medieval streets and closed piazzas. Visit the famous La Pasticceria di Grammatico. Maria learned her skills in a convent orphanage. The island of Favignana is just a short hydrofoil ride from town. We have dinner at 7pm in a local osteria serving traditional foods paired with local Trapanese wine.

Day 10 – Thursday 18 October

We depart at 10am for a wine tasting and lunch in the historic town of Marsala with its Arab-influenced buildings and history, and piles of sea salt. We visit the cellars of Donnafugata, a modern, intriguing maker of contemporary western Sicilian table wines. For lunch we will indulge at a local restaurant and enjoy what the chef recommends according to the fresh products of the day. We meet in the hotel's lounge bar at 8pm for a farewell drink.

Day 11 – Friday 19 October

Uncorked and Cultivated's Sicily Wine and Food Tour concludes. You will be leaving at 9am for the short journey (70km) north to drop off at the airport, or central Palermo.
