

Italy Wine and Food Tours

Tuscany and Piemonte 24 September-4 October 2018

Are you a wine and food connoisseur? Would you like to experience the very best Italian wine experience on offer? Peter Scudamore-Smith, Master of Wine from Uncorked and Cultivated will guide you through your spectacular sensory travel indulgence.

Get ready to savour amazing wines and mouth-watering gastronomic delights on Uncorked and Cultivated's exclusive wine and food tour of Italy. Taking you through the lands once ruled by Etruscan kings in Tuscany and the Dukes of Savoy in Piedmont, we deliver an exclusive experience for lovers of wine and food.

Our tour is led by celebrated wine expert Peter Scudamore-Smith. Peter is a Master of Wine—recognised as the highest achievement in the global wine community. He has established strong relationships with many Italian wineries. Allow Peter to reveal the secret highlights of middle Tuscany and lands overlooking Piedmont's Tanaro River while encouraging your appreciation of the unique food, wine and local characters.

What sets Uncorked and Cultivated's Wine and Food Tour apart is the introduction-only exclusive visits to wineries not generally open to the public. Better still, Peter's made sure that all of the wines tasted at the wineries and in the restaurants, are available for you to purchase at home. Each day you can look forward to a themed lunch or dinner to complement your winery visits. You can expect the very best of region-specific dishes, cooking styles, ingredients in season and wine varietals at each dining experience. Peter will guide the ristoranti managers in wine selection on each occasion. Uncorked and Cultivated recognises the establishment in Bra, Piedmont of the internationally-expanding Slow Food Movement. It's influence on re-discovering traditional food, local flavours and heirloom varieties is evident at the restaurants within the wine regions you will visit.

In Piedmont we will enjoy the heady aromas of freshly-dug white truffles as the internationally-famed Tartufo festival commences. Your luxurious and elegant accommodation is located centrally in the cities of Siena, Florence and Alba within the famous wine regions - Montalcino, Maremma, Chianti Classico and Chianti Rufina, Barolo and Barbaresco.

You are offered quality experiences within short walking distance to your hotels. We want you to have time to explore and discover the cultural sides of these ancient cities when wine visits are not programmed.

Day 1 – Monday 24 September

Welcome to Italy! We will collect you in Central Rome at 2pm. We then travel north to the medieval city of Siena in southern Tuscany. You'll be staying at a charming antique hotel located in the historical centre of the town. You will be in time for your first passeggiata. This is an age-old tradition of dressing smartly and taking a walk through the city sights before sundown. Sit and stop for an espresso or a small aperitivo and soak up the atmosphere. After aperitivi, we take a short walk to a local enoteca where you will enjoy traditional Tuscan fare such as the Chianina fillet crusted with dried fruit and sea bass ravioli with a shellfish mousse. To complement the meal Peter will select Chianti Classicos from Barone Ricasoli, Isole e Olena and Rocca delle Macie.

Day 2 – Tuesday 25 September

Today we depart at 9am for the modernistic Rocca di Frassinello winery for a tour and tasting. The estate is part of the Maremma sub-region, 10 km from the Ligurian Sea. This new vineyard specialises in sangiovese, with merlot and cabernet sauvignon creating a fine tannin-oak harmony between one traditional grape and two international stars. Rocca di Frassinello is a joint venture between Bordeaux's famous First Growth Chateau Lafite-Rothschild and Paolo Panerai's Castellare-in-Castellina (Chianti Classico). The winery is a magnificent new facility designed by Renzo Piano to blend with the local landscape colours. Also discover evidence of Etruscan winemaking from tombs excavated under the vineyards. We then go 10 km north to the beach town of Follonica for an enjoyable Tuscan seafood lunch. Evening is free

Day 3 – Wednesday 26 September

We depart at 9 am and travel 70 km south-west of Siena through the hill town of Montalcino to a beautiful and reputable estate producing Brunello di Montalcino. Here you will be introduced to the most noble of the sangiovese grape family, the sangiovese grosso which makes Tuscany's most gracious, long living and revered local wines. Afterwards we track north-east to the fringe of the Chianti Classico boundary near Bettolle for lunch in a resort restaurant occupied by a local cutting-edge chef creating terrines, local pasta and signature plates. We depart for Florence, staying at the Hotel Degli Orafi, a luxury hotel in the heart of the ancient town which dates back to the 13th century. Famed as a setting for the film "Room with a View", the hotel is within walking distance to shops and major attractions. We will have a welcome drink on the magnificent terrace overlooking the Arno River and Ponte Vecchio and the historic Duomo. Evening is free

Day 4 – Thursday 27 September

At 10 am we depart for Chianti Classico, the esteemed regional home of the spiritual red wine made from sangiovese and several minor local red grapes. Of the 14 industry-governed localities able to make Chianti Classico since 1924, we visit a Castello in Gaiole-in-Chianti to taste Chianti Classico, Riserva, Gran Selezione and Super Tuscan expressions of estate grown, made and bottled wines. We take a casual long lunch in the Slow Food tradition 10 km away at a local trattoria near Greve-in-Chianti. Anticipate local traditional fare including artisan prosciutto, salami, pecorino and the famous Florentine steak paired with Chiantis including Antinori and a highly praised Super Tuscan, Ornellaia. We return late afternoon to Florence. Evening is free.

Day 5 – Friday 28 September

From Florence we travel east at 10 am to Chianti Rufina and visit the oldest Tuscan family in the wine trade. We arrive at Marchesi di Frescobaldi wine estate at Castello di Nipozzano for our tour (which includes their own ancient town and bottle museum), tasting and lunch.

This estate has been owned by the Frescobaldi family for over 30 generations, leaders in the production of Chianti Rufina as well as six other localita estates. You will be hosted in Frescobaldi's private dining room and served traditional Tuscan family fare. Here we taste Frescobaldi's famous single vineyard sangiovese Montesodi, their Super Tuscan Mormoreto, cabernet, merlot, franc, verdot and the outstanding value sangiovese Riserva, Castello di Nipozzano. We depart at 3 pm and return to Florence. The evening is free.

Day 6 – Saturday 29 September

Enjoy your free day exploring Florence, the birthplace of the Renaissance and Italy's art capital. We stroll from our hotel at 7.30 pm for a degustazione dinner at a Michelin starred restaurant. Here you will sample the epicurean wonders of a young energetic chef. Try the chestnut and cabbage braised in extra virgin olive oil and smoked rabbit with pappardelle with cream of broccoli and garlic chips. The wines served will be premium Chianti Classico and Bolgheri Super Tuscans.

Day 7 – Sunday 30 September

We depart Florence for Alba at 9:00 am in the Piedmont region (the birthplace of the Slow Food Movement). You will travel past Genoa, experiencing your lunch as Italian motorists do at a typical auto-grill. By mid-afternoon we will arrive in north-western Italy at the Hotel Calissano, just outside the old town. Enjoy your first passeggiata in the new surroundings. We dine very casually at a cafe nearby in the main square, with regional antipasti, pastas and salt cod, and an introduction to the Piedmontese wine varieties.

Day 8 – Monday 1 October

We depart at 10:00 am to discover the wonders of the Langhe, and explore some of the eleven hill top villages that constitute the production of the famous Barolo DOCG. We are visiting Bruno and Marcello Ceretto's Monsordo Bernadina winery nearby in San Cassiano, families who build architecturally modern wineries, to taste an exquisite range of styles and ages of nebbiolo. After we travel towards Barolo village and seek an old restored farmhouse on the hill in Roddi, Il Vigneto to enjoy a scenic and casual lunch of local specialised pasta and some rare (seasonal) alpine cow milk cheese (think Plaisentif and Frabosana). Afterwards we take a visit in Barolo village to the Castello and Cantina of Marchese of Barolo, the original buildings held in the 19th century by local Savoy royalty- the Marquis of Barolo-Carlo Falletti and now developed by the inspirational Abbona family. The evening is free.

Day 9 – Tuesday 2 October

Today we depart at 10 am for our tour and wine tasting in the famous region of Barbaresco, visiting the Produttori di Barbaresco at the “top” of the hill. This sturdy co-operative is famous world-wide for its extensive array and easy priced single vineyard Barbaresco. The Produttori winery is installed in the main street. For lunch, we travel nearby to Treiso for a degustazione lunch at a famous Michelin-starred restaurant which has a panoramic view of local vineyards. Enjoy contemporary Piedmont flavours such as ‘San Remo’ shrimps fried with hazelnut crumbs, fried frog drumsticks with green ‘Piedmontese’ sauce, and for dessert, wild strawberry with pannacotta. Peter will select erudite Barbaresco from Pio Cesare, Michele Chiarlo, Gaja and Bruno Giacosa—wines of great balance, long flavour and silky yet drying tannins. The evening is free.

Day 10 – Wednesday 3 October

For the early starters there is an optional truffle hunt. We meet late morning for a tour and tasting at Pio Cesare winery. This is one of the two remaining properties which crushes grapes within the old Roman confines of Alba town. We meet and taste wines with one of the descendants of the family business established in 1881, owning 50 hectares of prime vineyards in the Barolo and Barbaresco communes. Your afternoon is free. This can be an opportunity to try your own white ‘tartufo’ plate as the truffle season is just commencing. Our celebration dinner will be at a renowned Barolo village restaurant where we will indulge our taste buds with Jerusalem artichoke pie, black truffle, crunchy anchovies, veal tail filled agnolotti, savoy cabbage or warm hazelnut cake. Peter will select some special bottles of Barolo and Barbaresco from Vietti, Fontanafredda, Pio Cesare and Giacomo Conterno.
